

Dawnn Taylor is a trainer, clinician and multi-carded judge including IBHA, APHA, POAC, ABRA, ARHA and Nat'l Versatility Ranch Horse Association. Her initial breed card over 15 years ago was with IBHA when she was fortunate enough to be mentored by Eugene Zimmermann and Gene Carr. Both men were very instrumental in starting her judging career. Dawnn has been in the equestrian industry most of her life and has shown in multiple disciplines achieving numerous All Around Championship awards. She has trained and instructed Youth and Amateur for over 20 years. Ms Taylor owns and operates Far Far Away Equestrian Services located in Ray, MN.

Nell Tekampe is from Salem, Wisconsin. She has been a judge and horse trainer for over 25 years. She judges across the US and Canada and has judged multiple national events including the Pinto World Show, Color Breed Congress, POA Congress and International Futurity, ABRA World Show, WDAA World Show, and will judge the NASMDA National Show this year. She currently holds judge's cards with IBHA, AQHA, APHA, NSBA, PHBA, ABRA, PtHA, POAC, AMHA, USEF, WDAA, and NASMDA. As a judge she is honored and excited to have been selected to judge this year's IBHA World show!

Rick Walters lives in Okeana, Ohio with his wife Iris. His interest in horses began when he was 10 and after high school he attended a two year equine program. In 1988 he bought his farm where he has raised and trained Quarter Horses. Rick has been an approved judge for 15 years and holds cards in IBHA, AQHA, POAC and ABRA. He has judged the POA Nationals, ABRA Congress, Ohio and Indiana State Fairs and numerous AQHA shows. Many of you might recognize Rick as he has previously been a ring steward at IBHA World Shows.

Todd Foltz, Janesville, Wisconsin will be the Equipment Judge for the 2021 IBHA World Show. He has been an IBHA Judge for 30 years and first became an IBHA member in 1985. He has attended every World Show for over 30 years, and has judged for every charter club in IBHA. Todd is now serving as the Chairman of the IBHA Judges Committee. In addition to IBHA, he holds judges card in PtHA, POAC and ASHA. This is Todd's fourth year as Equipment Judge. Make sure you stop and say Hi.

Todd Schling is a licensed Auctioneer, Real Estate Agent (affiliated with Baker Bonnigson Realty), seasoned Horse Show Announcer and proud member of the Ohio Auctioneer's Association. He has been announcing shows for 40 years and has done the AQHA Novice World Show as well as the All American Quarter Horse Congress. This is Todd's first year as the IBHA World Show announcer.

